

List of Tables

1.1 Pathways to convergence and divergence among case study countries	22
2.1 Cross-country variation in financial sectors (by income category)	36
2.2 Capital adequacy requirements under Basel II	42
2.3 Key components of Basel III	46
2.4 How extensively are case study countries implementing Basel II and III? (January 2019)	57
2.5 Which components of Basel III are case study countries implementing? (January 2019)	58
2.6 Attributes of financial sectors in case study countries	60
3.1 Pathways to convergence, divergence, and mock compliance	90
3.2 Matching case study countries against the explanatory framework	95
4.1 Pakistan: key indicators	106
4.2 Pakistan: adoption of Basel standards	112
5.1 Rwanda: key indicators	128
5.2 Rwanda: adoption of Basel standards	132
6.1 Ghana: key indicators	149
6.2 Ghana: changing patterns of bank ownership	150
6.3 Ghana: adoption of Basel standards	157
7.1 WAEMU: key indicators	175
7.2 WAEMU: adoption of Basel standards	183
8.1 Tanzania: key indicators	197
8.2 Tanzania: adoption of Basel standards	203
9.1 Kenya: key indicators	220
9.2 Kenya: adoption of Basel standards	224
9.3 Kenya: level of embeddedness of central bank governors	229
9.4 Kenya: top three banks at different stages of Basel adoption	234
10.1 Bolivia: key indicators	241
10.2 Bolivia: adoption of Basel standards	246
11.1 Nigeria: key indicators	262
11.2 Nigeria: sectoral distribution of credit	265
11.3 Nigeria: adoption of Basel standards	267
11.4 Nigeria: central bank governors, 1980s to the present	271

xiv LIST OF TABLES

12.1	Angola: key indicators	285
12.2	Angola: adoption of Basel standards	291
13.1	Vietnam: key indicators	306
13.2	Vietnam: adoption of Basel standards	311
13.3	Vietnam: preferences of major actors with respect to Basel adoption and implementation	318
14.1	Ethiopia: key indicators	329
14.2	Ethiopia: adoption of Basel standards	332
15.1	Drivers of convergence and divergence in our case studies	353