4. Short History :

Raja N. L. Khan Women's College was established in the historical Gope

Palace of Midnapore in the year 1957. Gope Palace, during the period of Raja Debendralal Khan, was the important nucleus of freedom movement and was graced by stalwarts like 'Gandhiji', 'Subhas Chandra Bose', 'Jawaharlal Neheru' and 'Smt. Indira Gandhi'. The father of the Nation "Mahatma Gandhi" lived in this palace for several days, in the year 1921 & 1925. The college was established with the blessings and initiative of the then Chief Minister of West Bengal—Dr. Bidhan Chandra Roy who had shown a keen interest to set up Women's College in this district to promote education and enlightenment among women. The benevolent determination and goodwill of the then MLA of Midnapore, Late Anjali Khan and her husband Late Amarendralal Khan transformed this dream into a reality. The College was inaugurated by Sri Debendranath Bandopadhyay, District Magistrate of Midnapore district on 22nd August, 1957. The college was initially, named as Midnapore Women's College and renamed as Raja N.L. Khan Women's College by Dr. Bidhan Chandra Roy on 10th October, 1961. Initially, it had only 9 students and only one building, now the college has blossomed into one of the most prestigious institutions of not only the district but also of the state as well. The institute has an excellent team of trained professionals who are dedicated to the core, at making students motivated to excel in the various fields. Since its inception, the college has been having the honour to welcome a galaxy of dignitaries into its premises.
